Government Structure

Monroe is a Constitutional County originally established on July 3, 1823. The Monroe County Board of County Commissioners is the county's governing body consisting of five commissioners elected to serve four year terms. A new Mayor is chosen by fellow commissioners annually in the month of November. The County Administrator is the chief administrative position for the county.

The operation of other specific government functions resides with five Constitutional Officers. These are the elected positions of Clerk of the Court, Property Appraiser, Sheriff, Supervisor of Elections, and Tax Collector.
